Candidates

Maintain

Dark Secrecy

PECULIAR NOVELTY OF WOULD-BE "CABINET" OFFICERS IS ASSISTED BY GOVERNOR.

The Republican Central Committee has had some correspondence with Governor Carter on the subject of the appointment of a successor to Superintendent Davis of the Public Instruction Department, the committee having taken action at a meeting called for the purpose, but neither the executive officers nor the committee will make public the names of the candidates. The governor declines to give out the names of those who are after the position. Chairman Robertson of the Central Committee said that he would not make the matter public of his own accord, but had no objection to the governor doing so. And to it is all secret.

At the executive office this morning Secretary Atkinson stated that Davis' resignation had been accepted and that there were applications in for the position, but that was about all he would admit. Some of the applicants for the job had asked that their names as applicants be not given out, and the governor, it appeared, had kindly agreed to let them get the job, if at all, without the public knowledge of it until the commission was issued. "It would not be fair to them," said Atkinson, "to publish their names when they have asked not to be mentioned."

The suggestion was made to the secretary that an applicant for a public office had no right to ask for secrecy, but he said it had been decided to respect the requests.

Carter has under consideration several applications and some endorsements by the Republican executive committee. The latter maintains as much secrecy as the governor. The Senate is not in session now, and the governor is able absolutely to control the appointment, whether his appointment meets with public approval or not.

"Haven't the people some interest in knowing who are after such a position and some right to know who may get it?" was asked by a Star reporter of one of those whom he thought might know what was going on.

"Miner's—und Gott," was the answer, and though it may sound irrelevant, perhaps it contains an explanation.

NEW LUSITANA

ATHLETIC CLUB

L. M. MEDEIROS HAS OFFERED A TROPHY TO BE COMPETED FOR BY ITS MEMBERS.

The new Portuguese Athletic Club which was organized recently and named the Lusitana Athletic Club, held a meeting at the Orpheum Sunday afternoon. The meeting was held at this place because the membership of the club is so large that a large gathering place is necessary.

It was announced that L. M. Medeiros had offered a handsome trophy to be competed for in the baseball tournament about to begin between the two teams already organized in the club. The games will probably be played on Sundays, though this is not fully determined yet.

There will be another meeting of the club held on Thursday evening of this week at the Orpheum at which further arrangements for athletic undertakings by the club will be discussed and decided on.

JACKSON WILL FIGHT

James Jackson, one of the Camp McKinley soldiers charged with having counterfeit money in possession, entered a plea of not guilty before United States Judge Dole this morning. S. H. Derby appeared as his counsel. The matter was set for trial next week, to follow the Bolton case. Jackson is the soldier who plucked packages of coin from palm trees at the camp.

SECRETARY JACK IS GOING TO WASHINGTON

man reported his having employed Clarence Crabbe as clerk, and the duties to be given the clerk were discussed. It was suggested that by way of co-operating with employers, the board make its clerk something of an employment agent.

"The Planters' Association have placed five or six hundred men who were seeking employment, since the first of the year," said E. D. Tenney.

Chairman Atkinson suggested that Crabbe keep in touch with the various planters and be able to respond to their need for help, and able to find employment for people here, also that he look out for pineapple ranches and all other employers. "If we bring immigrants here we must see that they get employment," he said.
